HONORS US HISTORY REFORM GROUP RESEARCH PROJECT
MANUEL 2018 – 60 POINTS

Directions:

1. Choose a reformer or reform organization from Ms. Manuel’s index cards. Choose a partner or partners you work well with.

2. Research the individual or group. What was his/her/their role in promoting reform? What problem were they trying to address? What were their views about the best way to address the problem? What specific methods did they use? What impact did they have?
   a. Use classroom textbook to gather basic information. Take notes and cite source. (5 pts)
   b. Use at least one secondary source from the media center page set up for this project.
      i. Internet, media center, class projects, progressives and reformers
      ii. Take notes and cite source (including for images) (10 pts)
   c. Find two primary sources related to your topic.
      i. One could be a news article from the time under study (media center)
      ii. Take notes and cite sources for each (15 pts)
   d. Important: All notes should be bullet points and in your own words, unless you are quoting an eyewitness or prominent person.
      i. i.e. NO CUTTING & PASTING
   e. Notes and sources for your group should be shared with Anne.B.Manuel@mcpsmd.net on a google doc in which I can easily tell which student is responsible for which notes and sources.

FINAL PROJECT OPTIONS
You and your partner(s) have three options for your means of presenting what you’ve learned. Your presentation is worth 30 points.

A. Produce and present a PowerPoint, Prezi, or video in which you teach the class about your topic, OR

B. Script a dinner party involving historical “captains of industry,” and at least two reformers. This choice requires a group of 4-6 students.

C. Stage a rap battle involving a faceoff between a reformer and someone with opposing views (e.g. Booker T. Washington and W.E.B. DuBois, Ida Tarbell and John D. Rockefeller or Ignatius Donnelly and Andrew Carnegie).
